Dismissal/Suspension

Suspension

The Board of Education may suspend a certified employee for an alleged or actual violation of any of the reasons for termination in Connecticut General Statute 10-151(b) when insufficient cause for dismissal is considered to exist, or may be suspended pending Board or legal action for dismissal of the employee on charges of violation of one or more of said causes for termination. The Superintendent may suspend an employee pending Board action when, in the opinion of the Superintendent continuation of the employee in the position presents a clear danger to the students, staff, property or reputation of the district or to the employee. The Board of Education may also suspend certified employees on the grounds of mental illness as determined by statutory requirements.

Dismissal/Termination

No certified employee shall be dismissed from the service of the schools without cause. The District will use the standards articulated by the State Department of Education for defining teacher effectiveness and ineffectiveness in the District's teacher evaluation plan. During the first four years of employment a certified employee may be dismissed provided that the employee is notified in writing prior to May 1st. A teacher so notified may request a written statement of the reasons for non-renewal of the contract, not later than three calendar days after such teacher receives the notice of non-renewal and the district will furnish such statement not later than five calendar days of the receipt of the request.

Procedures for a hearing on non-renewal of a contract shall be those given in C.G.S. 10-151(c) as amended. Beginning with and subsequent to the fifth year of continuous employment, no certified employee shall be terminated except for those reasons given in C.G.S. 10-151(b). If a tenured teacher is notified that termination is under consideration due to incompetence, the determination of incompetence or ineffectiveness will be based on evaluation of the teacher using teacher evaluation guidelines pursuant to section 10-151b, as amended. Procedures for termination shall be those itemized in C.G.S. 10-151(d), as amended.
