Nonnewaug High School

Nonnewaug High School has 716 students enrolled in grades 9-12. The professional staff consists of highly trained and skilled individuals. Support service staff includes a school psychologist, social worker, school nurse and paraprofessionals. Nonnewaug's primary purpose is to provide all students with access to a challenging program of studies. This program is designed to create a balance; impart a body of knowledge and provide the skills needed for lifelong learning. While Nonnewaug emphasizes the intellectual growth of students, it also stresses physical, emotional, social, ethical, and aesthetic development. In addition, it seeks to instill in its students an awareness of their civic opportunities and responsibilities in a democratic society.

Mission Statement The Nonnewaug High School community believes that all students have the right and responsibility to achieve their full potential. To that end, we strive to provide students with the knowledge, skills, and understandings needed to become lifelong learners and productive, compassionate citizens of the 21st century.

The Community Nonnewaug High School is a regional public high school serving the towns of Woodbury and Bethlehem. Nonnewaug also includes an Agriscience and Technology Program that serves many surrounding towns. Woodbury and Bethlehem are small rural/suburban communities in Litchfield County, Connecticut located approximately 45 miles west of Hartford and within a two-hour drive of New York City. The local population is comprised of a high percentage of professionals who maintain a keen interest in the quality of the educational system.
