

PERSONNEL*CONSULTANTS

The Board of Education promotes the use of consultants when they can provide valuable and necessary specialized service not normally required on a continuing basis and which cannot be provided by district personnel because of limitations of time, experience, knowledge.

When the need for consultants can be planned or anticipated, funding for such services should be incorporated in the appropriate budgetary line item.