

Summer Events for Kids at Bethlehem Library!

- “Kids Summer Reading Kickoff with White Memorial Conservation Center”. Friday, June 28th, 10:30-11:30 A.M. Join the Summer Reading Program as an Independent Reader or a Family Reader and get a free book donated by The Friends! White Memorial will be joining us on that day with a program on raptors. See a live Barred Owl and a Red-Tailed Hawk! Sign-up required for Raptor Program.
- “Space Challengers with Tom Callinan”. Friday, July 19th @ 11:00 A.M. In honor of the 50th anniversary of the first lunar landing, Tom Callinan (Connecticut’s 1st Official State Troubadour) has developed a participatory program about space that includes songs, stories, and a display of memorabilia of historic achievements in space. This program is for all ages. Sign-up required.
- “See Like an Artist” with local professional artist Rose Petruzzi. Wednesday, August 14th and Wednesday, August 21st, 10:30-11:30 A.M. These programs will direct children to see like artists, explore other artists, and create their own masterpieces. Ages 7-10. Sign-up required. Children are welcome to come to one program or both.
- “Tuesday Storytime”, each Tuesday from July 16th- August 20th. 10:30-11:30 A.M. Ages 2-7. Hear a story or two and meet other children! A craft table will be available for your creativity!
